

MAP SCULPTURE GARDEN

Sculpture garden in short

Covering 25 hectares and with 160 works, the sculpture garden is one of the largest in Europe. The oldest section of the garden, which opened in 1961, consists of cultivated 'green galleries'. Here, sculptures by classic modern artists, such as Auguste Rodin, Henry Moore, Jean Arp and Barbara Hepworth, stand freely in the space. Nature has been left more rugged in the later sections of the garden. Artists such as Jean Dubuffet, Richard Serra and Pierre Huyghe work on location and include the surroundings in their work. Two pavilions by Gerrit Rietveld and Aldo van Eyck, architectural gems from the fifties and sixties, have been reconstructed in the garden. This map provides an overview of all the works in the sculpture garden.
